

Ladies and gentlemen,

Today is a day of joy, love, and heartfelt appreciation. As we gather to celebrate this beautiful occasion, we are overwhelmed with gratitude for being part of such a special journey.

To our wonderful parents, thank you for opening your hearts and lives to a new chapter filled with love and belonging. Your compassion and kindness have created a family where there once was none, and your unwavering support is the foundation of endless possibilities.

To our beloved children, today marks the beginning of a lifetime of cherished memories. You are incredibly loved, and this family is your forever home. Your laughter, warmth, and unique spirits light up our lives in ways we could never have imagined.

To everyone who has played a role in this journey--friends, family, and advocates--thank you for your guidance, encouragement, and love. Your support means the world to us, and we hold you dearly in our hearts. As we move forward, let us embrace each moment with joy, knowing that the true essence of family is the love we share. Today, we celebrate the bonds that have been formed, and the endless love that will continue to grow.

Thank you, and let today be the start of an incredible adventure for our family.

With all our love and gratitude.
