

Good evening, everyone!

I just want to take a moment to express how wonderful it is to see all of you together in this room. We haven't had a chance like this in a while, and it's truly special to reconnect with each one of you.

Family is the heart of everything. It's in these gatherings that we share not just food and laughter, but memories and stories that bind us together. Each of us brings something unique to this family, and when we gather, it's like pieces of a puzzle coming together to form a beautiful picture.

Let's cherish the time we have today and remember how important it is to support one another in all that we do. May we continue to strengthen these bonds and create even more beautiful memories together.

Thank you all for being here and for being part of this wonderful family. Here's to many more gatherings filled with love and joy!

Cheers!
