

Ladies and Gentlemen,

Today, we gather in a spirit of joyous unity, celebrating the beautiful tapestry of family woven beyond borders. International adoption opens doors to new beginnings, not just for children, but for families who embrace a world without boundaries.

In this shared journey, we learn that love knows no nationality, and connections are made not through shared origins, but through shared hearts. Every adopted child brings a unique story, infusing their new home with rich cultures and diverse experiences that enrich our lives.

As we stand together today, let us celebrate the families who courageously open their hearts and homes, and the children who lovingly join them. May this unity inspire us to continue building a world where every child has a safe and loving place to call home.

Thank you.
