

Ladies and gentlemen,

Wow, what an incredible moment! Standing here today fills my heart with immense joy and gratitude. Winning this contest is truly an honor.

First, I want to express my deepest thanks to the judges for this recognition. Your encouragement means the world to me. To my teachers and mentors who guided me, thank you for your unwavering support and belief in my potential.

To my fellow competitors, I am deeply inspired by your talent and dedication. Each of you pushed me to do my best. This victory is shared with everyone here today.

Lastly, thank you to my family and friends for your love and encouragement. Your support has been my pillar throughout this journey. I am committed to continuing this path with humility and diligence. Thank you all, from the bottom of my heart.