

Ladies and gentlemen,

I stand here today with a heavy heart, knowing the challenges our community is currently facing. The recent disaster has brought immense hardship, and it's truly overwhelming to comprehend the losses we've suffered. But together, we are not alone.

To those who have lost loved ones, please know that our hearts break with yours. To the families without homes, you will find support and care as we work to rebuild. Each one of you is part of this community, and we stand beside you, ready to help.

Our emergency teams, volunteers, and neighbors have shown incredible courage and kindness. Their actions remind us that in the face of adversity, humanity prevails. Resources are available, and more are on the way. We are doing everything in our power to provide shelter, food, and medical support to those in need.

Let us lean on each other and offer kindness and compassion wherever we can. Remember, no act of support is too small. Together, we will heal, rebuild, and come back stronger than before.

Thank you, and please stay safe.
