

Ladies and gentlemen,

Today, we stand united, not just as a community, but as a beacon of hope and resilience. In the face of unimaginable challenges, when disaster struck, our volunteers stepped forward with open hearts and unwavering determination.

Your selfless dedication has made a profound difference. You've shown that in our darkest hours, humanity's light shines the brightest. From providing essential aid, offering a comforting hand, to rebuilding dreams, you have been the pillars of strength for so many.

Each of you embodies the spirit of compassion and perseverance. You've reminded us all that true heroes don't wear capes--they wear the armor of kindness and humility.

Thank you for inspiring us with your courage and compassion. Together, we will continue to rise, rebuild, and rejuvenate our community with hope and solidarity. Let's keep moving forward, for the journey to recovery is one we embark on hand in hand.

Thank you, volunteers, for being the heart of our community.
