

Ladies and gentlemen,

I hope this message finds you well. Today, I am reaching out with news that is both challenging and encouraging. I have received word that my application for the scholarship has not been selected this time. While this is not the outcome I had hoped for, I am filled with gratitude for the opportunity to apply and for the consideration given by the selection committee.

This experience, though it did not lead to the desired result, has only fueled my determination to continue pursuing my goals. I am committed to furthering my education and achieving the success I envision for my future. I believe that every experience is a stepping stone towards growth and improvement, and I will carry forward with renewed effort and dedication.

I would like to extend my sincere thanks to the committee for their time and consideration. And to my fellow applicants, I wish all of you the very best on your own journeys.

Thank you for your support, and I look forward to sharing more positive news in the near future.

Warm regards,
