

Certainly! Here is a simple example of a speech for rejection of a scholarship in a positive tone:

Dear [Scholarship Committee/Recipient's Name],
Thank you for considering my application for the [Name of Scholarship]. I am grateful for the opportunity to be reviewed by such a prestigious committee and appreciate the time and effort that goes into selecting candidates.

Although I am writing to respectfully decline the scholarship, I want to express my sincere gratitude for this honor. My recent circumstances have taken me in a different direction, and I believe it is in the best interest of all parties to pass this generous opportunity to another deserving student.

Receiving the news of my selection was a testament to my hard work and dedication, and it has inspired me to continue striving towards my academic and personal goals. I am immensely appreciative of the recognition, which has strengthened my resolve to succeed.

Thank you again for the opportunity and your belief in my potential. I am confident that your support will profoundly impact the lives of the scholarship recipients, and I look forward to seeing the continued success of the [Scholarship Name] program.

Warm regards,
[Your Name]
