Dear [Name],

Thank you so much for your application to join our community project team. We genuinely appreciate your enthusiasm and the effort you put forward in expressing your desire to contribute.

After careful consideration, we unfortunately will not be moving forward with your application at this time. This decision was incredibly difficult due to the many talented individuals who applied, and ultimately came down to finding the best fit for our current team needs.

Please know that this choice is not a reflection of your capabilities or potential to make a positive impact. We encourage you to stay connected with our community through our events and volunteer opportunities, as there are many ways to engage and make a difference.

We hope to have the opportunity to work together in the future, and wish you all the best in your endeavors.

Warm regards,
