

Ladies and gentlemen, thank you for considering me for this opportunity. After much reflection, I've decided to step back from pursuing this path at this time. I deeply appreciate the support and encouragement I've received, which have been invaluable. I trust that this decision will allow me to focus on areas where I can contribute most effectively. Thank you once again for your understanding and support.