

Ladies and gentlemen,

Thank you for taking the time to listen to my thesis defense. I appreciate the valuable feedback and insights you've provided.

I understand the committee has decided that my thesis, in its current form, does not meet the required standards for approval. I want to express my gratitude for your candid evaluation, and I truly value the opportunity to learn and improve from this experience.

While this decision is disappointing, I am committed to taking your feedback seriously and using it to guide my revisions. I plan to address the specific issues raised, particularly [mention specific issue], and further strengthen [mention another aspect].

In the upcoming months, I will focus on deeper research, seek additional guidance, and refine my arguments to enhance clarity and coherence. I am determined to revise my work thoroughly and resubmit it for evaluation once I have made the necessary improvements.

Thank you once again for your time and your constructive criticism. I am eager to refine my thesis and meet the rigorous standards expected by the committee.

Sincerely,

[Your Name]
