
Title: Classroom Debate on [Topic]

Introduction:

"Good [morning/afternoon], esteemed judges, respected opponents, and fellow classmates. Today, we are here to debate the topic '[Debate Topic]'. I am [Your Name], representing the [Affirmative/Negative] team."

Point Presentation:

1. Present Your Main Argument:

"Our primary argument is that [Main Argument]. This is critical because [Reason 1], [Reason 2], and [Reason 3]."

2. Support with Evidence:

"According to [Source], [Evidence 1]. Furthermore, [Person/Study] has shown [Evidence 2]."

Raise Objections:

1. Address Opponent's Point:

"Our opponents claim that [Opponent's Point]. However, this point is flawed because [Counter Argument]. For instance, [Example or Evidence]."

2. Highlight Inconsistencies:

"There is an inconsistency in their argument regarding [Specific Issue]. While they say [Opposing Argument], they fail to consider [Counterpoint]."

3. Introduce New Evidence Against Their Argument:

"Additionally, new studies indicate [New Evidence], which contradicts their stance."

Reinforce Your Argument:

"Returning to our position, the evidence clearly demonstrates that [Restate Strongest Evidence/Argument]. This further solidifies our stance."

Conclusion:

"In conclusion, given the points we've discussed and the evidence presented, it is evident that [Restate Your Position]. We urge you to consider these factors carefully."

Closing:

"Thank you for your attention, and we look forward to a thoughtful exchange of ideas."
