

1. Introduction:
 - Briefly introduce yourself and your stance.
 - State the specific ethical concerns you will address regarding the policy.
2. Clarification of Position:
 - Clearly outline the ethical principles or values that are in conflict with the policy.
 - Mention any stakeholders who may be harmed or marginalized by the policy.
3. Argument Development:
 - Point 1: Ethical Principle or Value.
 - State the principle (e.g., justice, autonomy).
 - Explain how the policy violates this principle.
 - Provide specific examples or evidence to support your claim.
 - Point 2: Potential Consequences.
 - Discuss the negative ethical implications or harms that may arise.
 - Highlight potential short-term and long-term effects on individuals or groups.
 - Point 3: Alternative Approaches.
 - Suggest more ethically sound alternatives or modifications to the policy.
 - Explain how these alternatives align better with ethical standards.
4. Counterarguments:
 - Acknowledge and refute common justifications for the policy.
 - Use evidence or ethical reasoning to undermine these arguments.
5. Conclusion:
 - Summarize key ethical objections.
 - Reinforce the importance of prioritizing ethical considerations in policy-making.
 - Urge the audience to reconsider the support for the policy based on ethical grounds.