

Dear Friends,

Good morning! It is wonderful to see each of your bright and smiling faces today. As we gather here in this sacred space, I want to remind each one of you that you are a cherished part of our community. Together, we form a tapestry of kindness, support, and love.

Today, let us reflect on the power of being a supportive community. Let us reach out to one another with open hearts and hands, eager to help and ready to listen. We are all fellow travelers on this journey of life, and by leaning on each other, we can overcome any obstacles we face.

Remember, you are never alone. We are here for you, ready to celebrate your joys and lift you up in times of need. Let us continue to build a church that is a beacon of hope, compassion, and unity for all.

Thank you for being part of this beautiful community. Together, we can make a difference.

Blessings to you all.
