

Ladies and gentlemen, if I could have your attention, please!

Thank you all for gathering here today to celebrate something absolutely wonderful--a little bundle of joy that's soon to join the world! We're here to shower our dear coworker [Name] with all the love, advice, and, of course, baby booties that we can muster.

[Name], we all know you're going to be a fantastic parent. Judging by how well you manage our deadlines, we're pretty sure you'll handle diaper changes with equal finesse!

Now, I must say, your baby is bound to have an excellent taste in music and a knack for PowerPoint presentations, thanks to all those hours in the office with us! But most importantly, they'll have the most loving, caring, and fun parent in you.

We can't wait to meet your little one and tell them all about your legendary office coffee spills and heroic snack runs. But until then, let's eat, drink, and make merry, because soon enough, [Name] will be living the sleep-deprived life of a parent!

Congratulations, [Name]! We're so excited for you and can't wait to welcome your little star into the world. Cheers!
