

Dear friends and colleagues gathered here,
In this joyful space, love is clear,
We celebrate a miracle, small yet grand,
A blessing soon to grace our land.
To [Coworker's Name], our dear friend so bright,
Your journey to parenthood takes flight,
With every kick and gentle sway,
Love grows stronger day by day.
May whispers of lullabies fill the air,
And tiny toes bring joy beyond compare.
May this little one bring laughter and light,
Turning your days into endless delight.
Just as stars fill the night sky,
May your hearts be full; your spirits fly,
For this babe is a treasure, pure as gold,
A story of love to forever be told.
Here's to dreams and tomorrows anew,
A family blossoming, strong and true.
With warm wishes and hearts so fond,
We welcome the baby with a loving bond.
Congratulations, dear [Coworker's Name], on this wondrous ride,
With love and joy, we'll be by your side.
To a future of cuddles, laughter, and play,
Happy beginnings on this special day.
Cheers!
