

Outline for Baby Shower Speech

1. Opening:

- Warm welcome to all guests and a big thank you for coming.
- Quick joke about how you finally have an excuse to eat cake and not worry about fitting into a bridesmaid dress.

2. Express Excitement:

- Share genuine excitement about becoming a grandparent.
- Light-hearted comment about finally having a little one to spoil and then return to the parents when they cry.

3. Favorite Memories:

- Funny anecdotes from your daughter's childhood that hint at what kind of parent she might be.
- Mention her unique way of taking care of dolls or pets as a child.

4. Parenting Advice:

- Offer humorous, tongue-in-cheek parenting advice.
- Example: "Remember, when things get tough, there's always duct tape... just kidding!"

5. Good Wishes:

- Offer heartfelt wishes for health, happiness, and lots of laughter.
- Share a funny wish that the baby inherits a specific family trait, like great hair or the ability to sleep anywhere.

6. Closing:

- Thank everyone again for coming.
- Raise a glass (of sparkling water or baby bottle) for a toast to the new parents and the baby.
