

Ladies and gentlemen,

Thank you all for being here today to celebrate the upcoming arrival of our precious little one. It's truly heartwarming to look around and see so many loved ones gathered together to share in this joyous occasion. We are beyond excited to welcome this tiny miracle into our lives, and knowing that our baby is already surrounded by such a wonderful community fills our hearts with gratitude and happiness. Your presence here means the world to us, and we are so thankful for each and every one of you. To our family and friends, your love and support have been our guiding light. We are incredibly fortunate to have you by our side as we step into this new chapter of our lives. Your words of wisdom, laughter, and hugs make this journey even more special.

As we count down the days until we finally meet our little one, please know that you are all an important part of their life. Your kindness and love will help shape the person they will become, and we can't thank you enough for being part of this incredible adventure.

Let's raise a toast to love, family, and all the beautiful moments yet to come. Here's to the newest member of our family and to the village that will help us grow and flourish.

With all our love,
