

Ladies and gentlemen,

Thank you all for gathering here today to celebrate the upcoming arrival of our precious twin grandchildren. As grandparents-to-be, our hearts are overflowing with joy and excitement.

We remember the day we found out there would be double the giggles, double the fun, and, of course, double the love. It's a dream come true for us to welcome not one, but two little miracles into our family.

To our wonderful children, the soon-to-be parents, we are so proud of you both. We know you will be amazing parents, and you have our unwavering support and love every step of the way. These twins are incredibly lucky to have you.

To our future grandchildren: We promise to spoil you with love, laughter, and endless adventures. We can't wait to hold you in our arms and share in all the special moments ahead.

Thank you to everyone for your love and support. Here's to the beautiful journey of parenthood--and grandparenthood--that lies ahead of us all. Cheers!
