

Ladies and gentlemen, colleagues, and friends,
Today, we gather to celebrate a beautiful new journey for our dear [Parent's Name]. It's a joy to witness the excitement and love that comes with welcoming a new member to the family. This baby is already so loved by his/her/their family and our great company community!
As we share stories, laughter, and perhaps even some parenting tips, let us also extend our support and enthusiasm to [Parent's Name] during this exciting time. We all know it takes a village, and we're all here as part of that supportive network.
Thank you, [Parent's Name], for including us in such a special moment. We can't wait to meet the little one and celebrate all the precious milestones to come.
Cheers to love, family, and new beginnings!
Thank you.
