

Ladies and gentlemen, gather near,
On this joyous day, we hold so dear.
In tender grace, a child's blessed rite,
Anointed with love, in heavenly light.
Soft as the dawn's first gentle gleam,
A new life's journey set to dream.
With smiles and warmth in our embrace,
We welcome this soul, God's gentle grace.
Waters of purity, whispered so lightly,
Cleansing the heart, pure and brightly.
In this sacred moment, hearts entwine,
Love's eternal promise forever to shine.
May angels guard with wings so wide,
Guide this child on life's gentle tide.
With family strong and friends so dear,
We'll nurture, protect, and always be near.
Raise your hearts to the skies above,
A celebration of life, a gesture of love.
For in this small soul, new hope begins,
Blessed in Christ, where love never ends.
With joy we honor, with faith we hold,
This wondrous gift, more precious than gold.
Let us cherish, let us pray,
On this beautiful Christening day.
