

Ladies and gentlemen,

We gather here today for a beautiful occasion, as we welcome my beloved sister into the heart of our faith. This christening marks the beginning of her spiritual journey, a journey filled with hope, love, and guidance. To my dear sister, today we celebrate you and the boundless joy you bring into our lives. May this special day shower you with blessings and surround you with love and warmth. We pray that as you grow, you are always guided by the light of kindness and the strength of faith.

Thank you to everyone here for joining us in this celebration. Your presence means the world to us and adds to the joy of this momentous day. With deepest gratitude and love, we embrace you into this community, knowing that you will be cherished and supported every step of the way. Welcome to a life of faith and love, dear sister. We are blessed to have you.

Thank you.
