

Ladies and gentlemen,

Thank you all for gathering here on this blessed day as we celebrate the christening of my dear brother. It is a profound step in his spiritual journey, and we are honored to have you with us.

Today marks the beginning of a new chapter, one filled with faith, hope, and love. As we gather to bless him on this sacred occasion, let's remember the importance of nurturing his spirit and guiding him with wisdom and compassion.

May his path be illuminated by the light of divine grace, and may he grow surrounded by love and kindness. Let us commit to supporting him as he embarks on this journey, always encouraging him to walk in truth and sincerity.

Thank you for your presence and prayers as we celebrate this beautiful beginning.

Blessings to all.
