

(Verse 1)

Today, beneath the sunlit sky so wide,
We gather with joy and love as our guide.
A gentle heart, so pure and new,
Blessed with grace, and dreams anew.

(Chorus)

Oh little star, so bright, you shine,
In this moment, your spirit divine.
Wrapped in warmth, in love's embrace,
May life's journey be gentle and grace.

(Verse 2)

Amidst the whispers of the trees,
And the dance of the gentle breeze,
We vow to stand, forever near,
To guide you, little one, with cheer.

(Bridge)

May laughter be your constant song,
May your heart know right from wrong.
With each step, through night and day,
May love and light pave your way.

(Outro)

So here we stand, hand in hand,
With hopes as wide as the endless sand.
For you, dear child, whom the angels blessed,
We wish you happiness and rest.
