

Dearly beloved, gathered here today,
In heaven's grace and gentle array,
We celebrate hearts that beat in sync,
Twin stars who light our lives in a blink.
With dreams and hopes, we offer our prayer,
For two precious souls, tender and rare.
May your journey be filled with love so true,
Guided by the light of skies ever blue.
Blessed with the bond only twins can share,
Two lives intertwined, beyond compare.
May laughter and joy be your guiding song,
And the world embrace you where you belong.
In the presence of love, under skies so wide,
We christen these souls, stars side by side.
May they grow with grace, courage, and cheer,
Beloved twins, so perfectly dear.
So, raise a prayer, a wish, a tender sigh,
For blessings that abound and dreams that fly.
Dear twins, in life's wondrous tapestry,
May love forever be your legacy.
Amen.
