

Ladies and Gentlemen,

Thank you all for being here today to celebrate this special occasion with us. It brings us immense joy to welcome you to our new home. Your presence truly warms our hearts and fills our home with love and laughter.

This house is not just a building; it's a testament to our family's dreams and hopes, a place where memories will be cherished for years to come. We can't wait to fill it with shared moments--dinners at the table, games in the living room, and stories shared by the fireplace.

To our family and friends, your support has been invaluable to us. We're grateful for every step of the journey you've shared with us, and we look forward to many more shared adventures in this new place we now call home.

As we open this new chapter, know that our door is always open to you. May this house be a place of warmth, happiness, and endless gatherings. Let's make beautiful memories together.

Thank you and welcome!
