

Ladies and gentlemen,

Thank you so much for joining us today to celebrate this special occasion. As I look around the room, I feel so blessed to have each of you here to share in the joy of our new home.

A house becomes a home when it is filled with care, love, and warmth. We are excited to start creating beautiful memories here with family and friends. This is not just a new beginning for us, but a place where we hope to gather with loved ones for many years to come.

Family and friends are truly the heart of any home. Your support and love have been instrumental in getting us here, and we are deeply grateful. We look forward to opening our doors as often as possible and celebrating life's milestones together under this roof.

Please enjoy the food and drinks, make yourselves at home, and let's enjoy this day together. Thank you all once again for joining us and for your blessings on our new adventure.

Cheers to new beginnings!

Thank you.
