

Ladies and gentlemen,

Thank you all for gathering here today to celebrate this beautiful new chapter in my daughter's life. As I stand here in this lovely home, I am filled with immense joy and pride. Watching my daughter create a space filled with love, laughter, and warmth is truly a heartwarming experience.

This house is not just a building; it's a place where dreams will be shared and memories will be made. As you settle into your new home, I hope it becomes a sanctuary of happiness and growth.

May every room be filled with laughter and love, and may every day bring you new reasons to smile. Here's to a future filled with beautiful moments and cherished memories in your new haven.

Congratulations, my dear. Welcome home.

Thank you.
