

In this new house, dear boss, you take your stand,
A cozy abode and a setting so grand.
May each room bring laughter, every corner delight,
Where bright mornings greet you and calm fills the night.
With walls that hold stories of joy yet untold,
May your hearth be as warm as your courage is bold.
In this lovely dwelling, may you always find,
A haven of peace and a sanctuary of mind.
As you cross the threshold with family and friends,
Know that old ties strengthen and new journeys begin.
Here's to memories cherished, in every window and door,
And a home filled with love forevermore!
