

Hello everyone!

I hope you're all doing great. I want to start by saying a massive thank you for joining us online today for our virtual housewarming celebration. Having you here, even from afar, means the world to us.

We're thrilled to share this special moment of moving into our new home with you. It's been quite a journey, and we couldn't have done it without the love, support, and encouragement from all of you. Whether you helped pack boxes, offered advice, or simply cheered us on from the sidelines, your support has been invaluable.

Although we wish we could have you all here in person to share a toast and enjoy some good food together, we are grateful for technology that allows us to connect and celebrate virtually. We look forward to making wonderful memories in this new space and can't wait to have you all here when it's possible.

Thank you once again for being part of our lives and for sharing in our happiness today. Cheers to new beginnings and the hope of welcoming you to our home soon!

Stay safe and take care!

Warm regards,
