

Ladies and gentlemen,

Thank you all for being here today to celebrate this very special occasion with us. We are beyond thrilled to welcome each one of you into our new home. Your presence warms our hearts and makes this house truly feel like a home.

Moving into this house is the beginning of a new chapter for us, filled with hope, joy, and countless possibilities. We are excited to create wonderful memories here with all of you--our cherished friends and family.

Please make yourselves comfortable, enjoy the food and drinks, and let laughter fill these rooms. Thank you for sharing this moment with us and for being such an important part of our lives.

Here's to new beginnings, lasting friendships, and countless happy moments together in this new home. Cheers!