

Ladies and gentlemen,

Welcome to our humble abode. Today marks a new chapter as we open our doors to cherished friends and family. We are truly grateful for your presence, as it brings warmth and joy to our home.

This house is more than just walls and a roof; it is a sanctuary where laughter will echo and memories will be woven. It is with poised serenity that we invite you to share in its future.

May every corner of this home resonate with love, peace, and happiness. Thank you for being a part of our journey. Here's to new beginnings and cherished moments together.

Please enjoy the evening and make yourselves at home.

Thank you.