

Ladies and gentlemen,

Welcome to our new home! Today is a special day, and we're so grateful to have all of you here to share it with us.

First and foremost, I want to thank my wonderful parents. Your love and support have made this all possible. This house is more than just walls and a roof; it is a testament to the strength and unity you've instilled in our family.

As we gather here, let us appreciate the warmth, laughter, and memories we will create in this space. May this house always be filled with joy, kindness, and love.

Thank you for being here to celebrate with us. Let's make this house a home together. Enjoy the evening!
