

Ladies and gentlemen,

Thank you all for being here today to celebrate this special moment with us. It warms our hearts to see so many smiling faces in our new home.

We couldn't have reached this milestone without the love and support of each and every one of you. From helping us move boxes to sharing your decorating tips, and simply being there whenever we needed a friend, you have truly made this journey unforgettable.

As we stand here in this house, it is not just the structure around us that makes it a home, but the love and experiences we share here together. This house is a symbol of our shared successes and a new chapter filled with laughter, joy, and countless memories to be created. To all of you, our wonderful friends and family, thank you for being part of our lives. Here's to many more gatherings, shared meals, and cherished moments in this beautiful home.

Cheers to our collective success and the bright future ahead!

Thank you!
