

Ladies and gentlemen, brothers and sisters in faith, thank you for gathering here today to celebrate this joyous occasion. As we stand in this beautiful new home, I am reminded of the words from Psalm 127:1, "Unless the Lord builds the house, those who build it labor in vain." Today, we witness the fruit of hard work, dedication, and above all, faith. It's a testament to believing in God's plan and timing. This home is more than bricks and mortar; it is a sanctuary, a place where love, joy, and the presence of the Lord will dwell. Let us pray that every corner is filled with His peace, every room echoes with laughter, and each heart feels His love. May it be a place where friends and family gather, where faith is nurtured, and where blessings abound. As you settle in, trust that God will be the cornerstone of your home. Let it be a strong foundation from which you continue to grow and serve. Congratulations on this new chapter, and may God bless your home richly. Amen.
