

Ladies and gentlemen,

Thank you for gathering here today to celebrate this joyous occasion. We are here to bless this new home--a place of warmth, love, and joy.

As you step into this new chapter and open these doors to family and friends, may your home be filled with laughter, peace, and happiness. Let it be a sanctuary where memories are made and cherished.

May your hearts always find comfort here, and may kindness fill every room. May this house be a place where love grows and dreams flourish.

Let us all offer our warmest wishes and prayers for this new beginning.

Welcome home.

Amen.
