

Good morning, everyone.

I stand before you today with a heavy heart and a sincere need to apologize. Recently, I made choices that were wrong and hurtful, and I let down not only myself but our entire school community.

I want to acknowledge the hurt I've caused and express my genuine remorse. I have spent a lot of time reflecting on my actions and the impact they have had on everyone. I understand that words alone cannot erase the pain, but I promise to take steps to make things right.

I am committed to learning from this experience and becoming a better person. I will actively work to regain your trust and show through my actions that I am dedicated to change.

Thank you for listening, and I hope to demonstrate my sincerity through positive actions moving forward.
