

Ladies and gentlemen gathered near,
To celebrate love, so sincere.
In this union, hearts entwine,
A tale of love, truly divine.
May happiness their hearts adorn,
With each sunrise, a love reborn.
Together through both joy and tears,
Building dreams across the years.
Raise a glass to love's sweet lore,
To the couple we all adore.
May their journey be bright and long,
Filled with love, like a timeless song.
