

Ladies and gentlemen,

If I could have your attention, please, I promise to keep this speech as quick as the groom getting cold feet this morning! Now, when [Groom] first told me he was getting married, I laughed and said, "To whom?!" He looked back, straight-faced, and said, "To someone way out of my league!" And as we can all see, he wasn't kidding!

Now, let me tell you a little story about [Bride] and [Groom]. For their first date, [Groom] planned a romantic evening, but somehow they ended up lost in the middle of nowhere. [Bride] thought she had signed up for fine dining and not a GPS misadventure. Yet, here we are today, celebrating their love, a testament to the fact that even when lost, if you're with the right person, there's no place you'd rather be.

And who could forget the time we went on that camping trip, where [Groom] insisted he could start a fire using "bear grylls techniques" he saw on TV. He's lucky [Bride] was there to save the day with a box of matches from the car! Let's just say, in their life together, [Bride] will keep the flames of love burning and the fire pit too!

So, let's raise a glass to [Bride] and [Groom]. May their love be modern enough to survive the times and old-fashioned enough to last forever.

Cheers!