

Good evening, everyone.

I am truly honored to stand here tonight, surrounded by such remarkable individuals who have shared in the journey of our alma mater. As we gather for this special alumni event, I find myself reflecting on the many memories we've created together and the profound impact you've all had on my life.

To all the faculty members, thank you for your unwavering dedication and for nurturing our growth during those pivotal years. Your guidance has shaped who we are today, and for that, we are forever grateful.

To my fellow alumni, thank you for the camaraderie, laughter, and support. Whether it was late-night study sessions or celebrating our achievements, these experiences have created bonds that time and distance cannot diminish.

Lastly, to our organizing committee, thank you for bringing us together tonight. Your efforts have made this evening a celebration of not just our past, but the enduring connections that continue to enrich our lives. Here's to cherishing our memories and to the continued journey ahead. Thank you, everyone.
