

Ladies and gentlemen,

Thank you all for gathering today with such open hearts. We are united by a common goal--to help our brothers and sisters who have been affected by the recent disaster. It's hard to imagine the challenges they are facing: lost homes, disrupted lives, and the struggle to find hope amidst chaos. But today, we can be that beacon of hope. Our generosity can help rebuild homes, provide food and clean water, and offer comfort and strength.

Every contribution, no matter the size, makes a difference.

Let us stand together and lend a hand to those in desperate need. It's in these moments that our compassion and unity shine the brightest.

Together, we can turn heartbreak into hope and despair into new beginnings.

Thank you for your kindness and support.