

Ladies and gentlemen, esteemed guests, and dear friends,
Tonight, we gather here for a purpose that transcends politics and unites us all as members of a shared community. No matter where you stand on the political spectrum, I believe we can all agree on the importance of working together to uplift those in need and strengthen the bonds that hold us together.

Our objective is simple, but profoundly impactful: to raise funds that empower our cause, ensuring hope and support reach those who need it the most. Together, with your generous contributions, we can make a real and positive difference.

We are stronger, more resilient, and more effective when we embrace diversity and collaborate across party lines. It's in our unity and shared commitment that we find the strength to uplift lives, champion progress, and build a brighter future for everyone.

Let us leave behind what divides us, and focus on what unites us. This is the moment to make a collective impact, to join hands in making change possible.

Thank you for being here, for your generosity, and for your unwavering commitment to making a difference. Together, let's lead by example and show what true, bipartisan collaboration can achieve.
