

Ladies and gentlemen,

Thank you all for gathering here today. We come together in memory of someone dear to us, celebrating the incredible impact they had on our lives. Though their absence is deeply felt, their spirit continues to inspire us.

Today, we have an opportunity to honor their legacy by supporting a cause close to their heart. Through your generosity, we can make a real difference, much like they did in our lives. Together, let's channel our collective strength to ensure their passion lives on, transforming challenges into opportunities for those in need.

Thank you for your support and for helping us keep their memory alive through action and love.
