

Ladies and gentlemen,
Today, we gather here to celebrate the life of our beloved Aunt Sarah, a radiant soul who touched the hearts of everyone she met.
In whispered winds and sunlit hues,
Aunt Sarah danced through life's gentle muse.
With laughter light and kindness deep,
She sowed a love we'd always keep.
Her hands, a map of stories told,
In warmth and grace, her heart of gold.
Through garden paths where roses bloom,
She painted life beyond the gloom.
Each morning's light she met with cheer,
Her wisdom wrapped in love sincere.
With eyes that sparkled, bright and free,
She taught us strength and dignity.
Though sails now set for distant shore,
Her spirit's glow forevermore.
In every heart her echoes sing,
A lasting note on life's sweet string.
May we embrace the gifts she shared,
And walk anew the paths she dared.
A tribute now to Aunt's bright flame,
Her cherished song, our hearts proclaim.
Thank you, Aunt Sarah, for teaching us to love, to laugh, and to live fully. You will be missed but never forgotten.
