

Ladies and gentlemen,

Today, we gather to honor the unwavering dedication of military families who stand as pillars of strength behind our brave service members. Your sacrifices, often silent and unseen, are the foundation that upholds those who protect our nation.

To the spouses, children, and loved ones, your resilience inspires us all. While your loved ones serve on the frontlines, you manage households, support each other, and keep the family bond strong. You embody courage and commitment in your daily lives.

We are deeply grateful for your service and sacrifice. You may not wear a uniform, but your contributions are vital to the mission. Today, and every day, we stand in solidarity with you, recognizing the burden you bear and honoring the selflessness with which you carry it.

Thank you for your unwavering support and for being the backbone of our armed forces. Your strength and love fuel our nation's spirit.

With heartfelt appreciation,
