

Hello everyone!

Thank you all for being here today. I'm so excited to dive into the world of public speaking with all of you. Whether you're a seasoned speaker or just starting out, there's always something new to learn, wouldn't you agree?

Public speaking can be a powerful tool for communication, and together, we're going to explore ways to make it engaging and impactful. But I don't want to just stand here and talk at you. Instead, let's make this a collaborative effort. How about we start by sharing some of your own experiences with public speaking? Has anyone had a memorable moment they'd like to share?

[Pause for responses.]

Those are great stories, thank you for sharing! It's experiences like these that can teach us so much. So, let's work on building our confidence and sharpening our skills together. We'll play some interactive games and maybe even stretch our comfort zones a little. Does that sound good to everybody?

I hope you're as excited as I am. Let's get started on this journey and have some fun while we're at it. Who's ready to begin?

Thank you!
