

Ladies and gentlemen,

Today, as I stand before you, I am both honored and a bit teary-eyed as I reflect on my extraordinary career journey. It feels like just yesterday that I first walked through these doors, filled with youthful ambition and the excitement of all that lay ahead.

I've had the privilege of growing alongside this organization, and it has been nothing short of remarkable. From my first big project and those late nights spent collaborating with incredible colleagues, to the countless challenges that turned into opportunities, every step has been worth it.

The friendships I've formed here are more than just professional. They're the kind of bonds that last a lifetime. Together, we've shared laughter, celebrated milestones, and supported each other through the ups and downs. I cherish these memories and hold them close to my heart.

As I turn the page to this new chapter of my life, I carry with me the lessons learned and the values instilled within these walls. I am deeply grateful for the chances I've been given, the mentors who guided me, and the team that made every day an adventure.

Thank you all for being an integral part of my story. Though I'm saying goodbye, a piece of my heart will always remain here, with each one of you.

Here's to new beginnings and the memories we've created together. Thank you.
