

Ladies and gentlemen,

We gather here today in the spirit of unity and joy, as we celebrate a special occasion blessed by the love and guidance found in our sacred scriptures.

"Rejoice evermore" (1 Thessalonians 5:16) reminds us that today is a day for joy. As we come together, let us embrace the happiness that fills the air and allow it to inspire our hearts.

In the book of Proverbs, we are taught, "A friend loves at all times" (Proverbs 17:17). Let us cherish the bonds of friendship and love that have brought us together today, remembering that we are supported by a mutual foundation of care and kindness.

As we move forward, may we hold onto the wisdom of Ecclesiastes 4:9, which tells us, "Two are better than one, because they have a good reward for their toil." Together, may we accomplish great things, lending strength to one another and sharing the fruits of our collective efforts. Let this ceremony be a testament to our commitment to uphold these timeless teachings. With grateful hearts, let us celebrate the blessings of today and look forward to a future filled with hope and promise.

Thank you.