

Ladies and gentlemen, brothers and sisters,
We gather here today not just as workers seeking fairness, but as a united family, acknowledging our shared humanity and divine purpose. In this journey toward justice and dignity in our workplace, let us remember that we are all children of God, called to live in harmony and support one another.

Our faith teaches us that every individual is valued, that each of us carries the light of God within. As we stand together, let us reflect that light, lifting each other up and ensuring that no one among us is left behind. Our collective strength, rooted in love and righteousness, is a testament to our commitment to a just and equitable future.

Let us pray for wisdom, courage, and perseverance, trusting that with God's guidance, we can achieve what is fair and just. As we move forward, may our actions resonate with compassion and our voices echo with hope. Thank you, and may God bless our union and our shared mission.
