

Ladies and gentlemen,

If I could have your attention for just a moment, I'd like to say a few words about my incredible sister.

Growing up with [Sister's Name] was like having a built-in best friend.

From our countless adventures playing dress-up, to whispering secrets long past our bedtime, she has always been my confidante and my rock.

[Sister's Name], you taught me how to be brave, to laugh until it hurts, and to love with everything I have.

Seeing you today, radiant and happy, fills my heart with so much joy. You have found someone who truly appreciates the beautiful person you are.

[Partner's Name], thank you for loving my sister and joining in on our little family. Welcome to our crazy, wonderful clan.

As you begin this new chapter, know that I'll always be here for you both--not just as a sister, but as a supporter of your journey together.

To [Sister's Name] and [Partner's Name], may your lives together be filled with laughter, adventure, and unending love.

Cheers!
